A better title for this book would have been "FUCKED: The Corporate Infiltration of American Democracy". Before having read this, I was aware of "regulatory capture" and the "revolving door" of corporate lobbying and assaults on civil liberties ...but admittedly not aware of the scale and scope of it. After what we've seen of how Citizens United took the reins off corporate spending in 2010, the analogies fail me. This isn't David vs.
